

Invitation Conditions

Travel and Accommodation

Jean-Luc Trachsel frequently travels around the world throughout the year. To make his travel hours comfortable, he has a few specific requests regarding this matter. Please note that Jean-Luc travels with at least two large pieces of luggage.

Flights

- 1 round-trip flight (Economy Class within Europe, Business Class for longer flights).
- Arrange car transportation from and to the airport—and the hotel.
- Flights will be booked by the speaker. The speaker will send you an invoice for the expenses after booking.

Car or Train

- When traveling by car, please reserve a parking space for him.
- 1 round-trip train ticket, in 1st class if possible.

Accommodation

- A decent, clean, and quiet hotel room equipped with a Wi-Fi connection. Jean-Luc needs to be alone in his room, as he requires time to prepare and pray.
- The speaker may request a specific hotel or a certain type of accommodation.
- It is possible that the speaker will book the hotel room directly and send an invoice for his expenses at the end of the stay.
- Jean-Luc may travel with his spouse, his assistant, and/or his interns. If possible, thank you for welcoming and accommodating them as well.

Food

The host will take care of meals and food for the entire duration of the stay. Jean-Luc does not suffer from any allergies and eats everything.

Please take into consideration that Jean-Luc drinks a lot of water.

Expenses and Honorariums / Offerings

It is requested that all expenses incurred by Jean-Luc for and during the event be reimbursed.

We thank the host for covering all costs related to Jean-Luc's flights (1 round-trip ticket in Economy Class within Europe, Business Class outside Europe) and all ground transportation by car (gas) or train (1 round-trip ticket in 1st class if possible).

Car transportation will be arranged by the host from the hotel to the event venue (and back), bearing in mind that Jean-Luc may be accompanied when he travels.

Hotel nights and meals will be covered by the host.

It is an honor for Jean-Luc to serve you. Knowing that Jean-Luc lives by faith, from the generosity of people and offerings, your support in this regard is welcome. This also applies to online events via Zoom or other technologies.

If an honorarium or an offering can be sent to this pioneer ministry, we would be very grateful.

On behalf of Jean-Luc, we thank you in advance!

Product Sales and Advertising

In order to present his ministries, which include IAHM (International Association of Healing Ministries) and Europe Shall Be Saved (ESBS), as well as products such as his book and USB drives, we require a table for a stand.

We would appreciate it if you could provide 1–2 volunteers to handle sales and inform people. You will receive further details regarding this.

Additionally, we would like to show a short video presenting our activities, our association, or a conference related to IAHM.

Speaker Requests

Before preaching, Jean-Luc needs time to prepare, pray, and rest. Please make this possible within his schedule.

During his preaching, Jean-Luc likes to have a bottle of still water available.

Likewise, during Jean-Luc's preaching, please provide a pianist to play soft, anointed background music, and during the ministry time, Jean-Luc would appreciate having the full worship team.

During the event, Jean-Luc would like the assistance of a contact person to answer his questions or address other needs.

Audio and Video Recordings

Jean-Luc Trachsel allows recordings of the event, but he retains the rights to the use of the recording. He requests a copy of the recording in whatever format available, as well as photos if applicable. The recording of the event may be used in any manner we deem appropriate, such as for sale or otherwise.
